

APPRAISAL OF VANDENBERG

(Part Two)

As noted yesterday, Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg was instrumental in producing some consequences which were of the utmost in importance.

The strategy by which these victories were accomplished was mainly that of bottling up all opposition under his own leadership, and then producing a "compromise" by which the proponents of the measures obtained all they wished, and the opponents got no more than an empty shell.

A single example will illustrate the technique. Prior to his being offered and accepting a seat on the United Nations Organization early in 1945, Senator Vandenberg delivered a vigorous denunciation of the proposed charter because it nowhere recognized the principle of justice as one of its major objectives.

This constituted the Senator the leading spokesman for those who believed that the charter was a rattlebrained scheme worked up by incompetents, and that it ought to be carefully overhauled before adoption.

When the Senator thereafter accepted a seat in the U. N. Organization, and then went to San Francisco and after purely perfunctory discussions about changing the charter, swung in for its adoption virtually unchanged, the opposition was "mouse-trapped" and rendered impotent.

Precisely identical strategy blocked Republican efforts to curb the trade agreements program when they took over command of Congress in 1947; shortly thereafter pushed through both the Marshall Plan law and all the appropriation for it which the White House sought; and over and again cut down resistance to the Truman schemes just as successful attacks on them seemed to be certain.

Needless to say, this type of strategy made enemies as well as friends. The Senator's position has been productive of angry controversy. He has been extravagantly praised as one of the super-statesmen of the generation, and likewise has been bitterly assailed as a sort of political bell-wether.

But of the terrific impact of his accomplishments, there can be no argument. Consider the end results of some of the matters mentioned above.

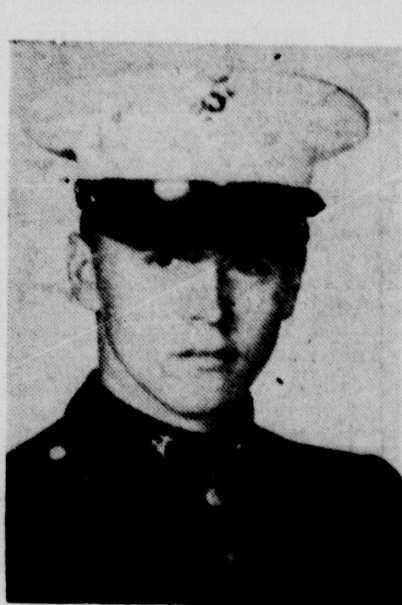

For example, it goes almost without saying that the British experiment in Socialism would have collapsed, bankrupt, long ago had not Senator Vandenberg been able to maneuver through Congress the measures which provided American dollars to keep it going.

Likewise, had not the Senator rescued the Truman Administration from the full force of the Republican majorities in Congress in 1947, had he not successfully headed that session off from doing to President Truman what the Democratic Congress in 1931 did to President Hoover—then it seems utterly impossible for Mr. Truman and his Party to have got back in business during the following two years.

Senator Vandenberg's support of the gigantic loan programs gave the Democratic Party the sinews of war for successful campaigns in 1948 at state, congressional and national levels. Meanwhile, the Vandenberg influence in the camp of Nominee Dewey, and his "bipartisan" doctrine, tangled the Republican Candidate's feet so completely that it became out of the question for him to prosecute some of the most urgent of the campaign issues against President Truman—and the Democratic President was re-elected, in the face of the tide, and with the support of only one fourth of the American voters!

The further abroad you go, the more signs you find to prove

ACCEPTS PASTORATE, LEVITTOWN CHURCH

Rev. Donner B. Atwood Will Leave Richboro On May 15th

INSTALLATION MAY 20

RICHBORO, Apr. 28.—The pastor of Addisville Reformed Church, the Rev. Donner B. Atwood, has accepted the pastorate of the Levittown, N. Y., Community Reformed Church.

The clergyman and his family will leave Richboro on May 15th.

During the Rev. Mr. Atwood's stay here, 126 new members have been received into the church, the present active membership being 268.

He had been active in inter-community affairs, working largely with Newtown Council of Churches and Meetings. He acted as dean for two years of the interdenominational Leadership Training School, held at Churchville.

The Levittown Community Church to which Mr. Atwood is going, is at the center of one of America's most phenomenal building developments. Three years ago the land consisted of a series of potato fields, while today the same area has homes for 55,000 people. The Community Church was the first church in the area, and in its two years attained a membership of over 300, with a Sunday School of more than 500. Virtually all of the pupils of the School are 13 years old, or younger, with some 225 of them under seven years of age.

Mr. Atwood will be installed as pastor of the Levittown Church at four p. m., on May 20.

THE WAR

TOKYO, Apr. 28.—(INS)—Communist spearheads slashed to points four miles from Seoul today, forging onward despite frightful casualties inflicted by round-the-clock Allied air and artillery strikes. Front dispatches told of the progress of the enemy troops in the vanguard of the Communist all-out offensive but failed to pinpoint the advance. Earlier dispatches mention "Communist infiltration units" which were reported crashing down the flatland of the Uijongbu corridor toward the South Korean capital which the Republic of Korea ordered evacuated for the third time in the Korean war.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Senator Taft, urging Congress to record itself as opposed to any "appeasement peace" in Korea, said the United States had the choice of either fighting "a more aggressive war" against the Chinese Communist invaders or to capitulate to them. He warned that the latter policy could be expected of Secretary of State Acheson.

The conference committee set up by the House and Senate to iron differences in the draft bills passed by the two branches of Congress decided to delay further meetings pending Congressional hearings into the dismissal of General MacArthur.

The deposed Far Eastern commander received another great ovation in Milwaukee, where he denied again through an aide that he had any ambitions for public office. The General will ride today in the vanguard of New York's Loyal Day parade but because of many protests Cardinal Spellman will not ride with him.

Winston Churchill canceled his scheduled visit to this country next month. It was believed his decision had been influenced by a desire not to become involved in any way in the MacArthur controversy.

France's five-year rearmament program is being hamstrung because of administrative bungling, a legislative inquiry charged.

That country's coalition Cabinet faced a critical situation following

DR. TEMPLE FAY IS RED CROSS SPEAKER

Well-Known Brain Specialist Addresses Annual Meeting Held at Newtown

HEAR SOME REPORTS

NEWTOWN, Apr. 28.—The annual meeting of the Lower Bucks Branch, American Red Cross, was held here Thursday, with about 75 in attendance.

Mrs. David L. Watson, chairman of the branch, introduced the speaker, Dr. Temple Fay, noted brain surgeon, who is also vice-chairman of branch services for the S. E. Pennsylvania Chapter American Red Cross. Dr. Fay congratulated the Branch on its services and emphasized the importance of the branches in time of disaster. They probably would be the periphery of the disaster area and would receive the full force of the evacuation. All through his speech Dr. Fay advocated depth in committees and "teams of six" so that there would always be trained workers for duty at home and for loan to neighboring communities in case of need. Before closing his address, Dr. Fay touched briefly on the relationship between Red Cross and Civil Defense, stating that it is the duty of Red Cross "to care for the people" and the duty of Civil Defense "to protect the people."

Mrs. David L. Watson gave her yearly report. She congratulated Mrs. William Fabian on her thirty years' work in Red Cross and Mrs. Alfred Thompson for her many years service as a gray lady. During the year the Branch had collected 1677 pints of blood in its industrial and community visits. It has aided 25 people in four "one-family" disasters. Three of these disasters were in the Bristol district and one in Langhorne. First aid teacher training courses and regular first aid courses are being conducted throughout the branch to meet commitments in Civil Defense. There are six home nursing courses in progress at the present time. Earlier in the year an instructors' home nursing course was completed in the Yardley district.

The home service department of the branch helped 695 families during the year and gave financial assistance in the amount of $3,046.89.

Junior Red Cross has had an active year. The Junior Red Cross service fund amounted to $709.10. Under the auspices of Junior Red Cross 184 free films were shown to promote international understanding. Articles were made for those in hospitals, orphanages and homes for the aged. Welfare services provided for Junior Red Cross funds this year included: psychiatric tests, cardiographs, x-rays, ton-

Monday the Volunteer Bucks County Rescue Squad will start its annual door-to-door solicitation for funds in Bristol Township. These funds are used to maintain three ambulances which answered 1249 calls and travelled 42,481 miles last year, and a rescue light-truck, which is used for fire and rescue work, and other necessary equipment which had to be increased due to calls received by doctors, especially for oxygen equipment. All of the equipment belongs to the public. The squad is a means of transporting and operating it for the public "so help us to help others."

Soliciting of funds will be done by members in uniform, accompanied by an ambulance, Monday through Thursday between the hours of seven and nine in the evening and Saturday during the day.

Over 800 To Be Circulated in Bucks County, It is Said

FOR VARIOUS OFFICES

Six Councilmen Are To Be Elected in Bristol Borough

Over 800 petitions for township, borough and county offices will be circulated starting Monday in various sections of Bucks county. The proper number of signatures will be needed on each petition.

The various petitions have been mailed to the Republican and Democrat candidates, and independent candidates can obtain petitions at the Bucks County Administration Building, Doylestown.

The law calls for ten names on the petitions for local offices of the borough and township, with each person signing it required to be a qualified voter in the candidate's own district, and a member of the same political party to which the candidate belongs. The only exception to this number is for the office of inspector of elections, which petitions require only five signatures.

All county office candidates' petitions must have 100 names, with

BUCKS CLUBWOMEN STRESS "AMERICAN HOME" AT SESSIONS

160 Hear Only Woman Member of Philadelphia Charter Commission

HELD AT BUCKINGHAM

15 Senior Clubs Are Represented, and Five Junior Groups

By Staff Reporter

BUCKINGHAM, Apr. 28.—Considering individuals as the "material," and listing the "tools" for building a good social structure, Mrs. Helen E. Heydrick, of Philadelphia, yesterday spoke on "The Art of Living Together." Her audience of 160 was composed of club women who make up Bucks County Federation of Women's Clubs, with a few from the junior clubs and also guests. They gathered in Tyro Hall Grange hall.

Mrs. Heydrick was introduced by Mrs. William D. Lynch, of Southampton, first vice-president of the county federation, as "the only woman member of the Philadelphia Charter Commission." She has been actively engaged in church work and other types of organization for many years, and is a past president of the Philadelphia Sorptimist Club. So ninth-provoking was her presentation, that the president of the county federation, Mrs. E. Wilmer Fisher, Morrisville, said at its conclusion: "Mrs. Heydrick, you've been a real tonic."

Scarcely had the audience subsided from one peal of laughter, than it went into another, but for brief seconds between there were real gems of thought, almost capsule sermons in short sentences or in snatches of poems. After considering the individual persons in the world as the "material," the guest referred to the skill and good tools needed to make of the "materials" a thing of beauty and service. The "tools" stressed were humor, appreciation, expressed affection, faith.

The great need for humor, and the ability to see the funny side of a situation was stressed particularly for the young woman and young man just starting in married life. "They really set up a little community of their own, and they have to learn to adjust themselves to each other's problems. . . . As far as the big things go you just 'gang up' and meet them, but it's the little things that cause the trouble. It's the little things of life that hurt us and help to hold us back. Remember 'You can sit on a mountain, but you can't sit on a tack'." It's the little things that happen in a household that help to destroy the home unless you have a sense of humor. The first bit of "material" you must look at is yourself. You must look for your own weak spots. Then try to see the kind of material of which your family and friends are made. Try to see their good points. You will find you can make contributions to each other. Remember you must rub shoulders with all kinds to learn to really live in this world. . . . You have to learn to like people." At this juncture, Mrs. Heydrick reminded that many, disgusted after a year of club work, are probably ready to "sit along the curb." "But," she added "remember the world will just pass you by if you do that. So just take a little 'vacation' and go right back to it." She mentioned the art of learning to deal with people, such requiring time, patience, and knowledge of what makes people "tick."

"The first thing I do every morning when I pick up the newspaper is to turn to the 'comics'—read 'Blondie,' 'Emily and Mabel,' 'Dick Tracy,' and a few others. Then I can turn to the first page and even stand Truman and MacArthur."

Regarding the "tool" of appreciation, Mrs. Heydrick said "We're

Army Guarantees Schooling for Recruits

Sgt. Alfred Catoggio, of the local U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force recruiting office, has announced that the Army has never before been equaled in any of the Armed Services, that is: Guaranteed technical schooling for the high school graduate. The way it works is as follows: First the applicant will select a school that he would like to attend, from a list of fifteen to twenty schools that are presently available. Next, he will fill out an application, which is forwarded to the training command, along with a transcript of his high school record. The training command evaluates his application and in turn forwards a letter to the recruiting office in the area of the applicant, in this case it will be the Bristol recruiting office, telling him of the approval or disapproval of the application. In the event of approval, they will notify the recruiting sergeant of the desired time of enlisting the applicant in respect to the starting dates of classes, the location of the school, and the period of the schooling. In the event of disapproval, the applicant can select another course or forget about enlisting, because in either case the applicant is not enlisted until after he receives his approval. This program is fool-proof in that the applicant receives written guarantee that he will attend the school of his choice, before he enlists.

Councilman DiLissio Takes Riverside Miss as Bride

RIVERSIDE, N. J., Apr. 28 — A member of the borough council of Bristol, Pa., Mr. Joseph DiLissio, took as his bride here this morning, Miss Ethel Fabritus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dominick Fabritus, of this community. The 10 o'clock nuptial ceremony was solemnized in St. Peter's R. C. Church, with the church choir singing during the mass. The bride was escorted to the altar by her father where she took the vows uniting her in marriage to the son of Mr. Dominick DiLissio, of Bristol. Councilman DiLissio is a representative of Bristol's fifth ward.

The bride was attractive in a gown of white net and lace, it being patterned with Peter Pan collar, long sleeves and short train. Her headpiece of seed pearls held a finger-tip veil of net and lace. She carried white roses.

Her only attendant was her sister, Mrs. M. Constantino, of Washington street, Bristol. Mrs. Constantino was dressed in a floor-length gown of aqua net and lace, wore a matching head-piece, and carried yellow rose-buds. Her slipper was in silver tone.

Best man for Councilman DiLissio was Mr. Cherubini Rossi, of 1104 Wood street, Bristol.

A wedding breakfast was served at the Fabritus residence, here, and this evening a reception is planned at the DiLissio home in Bristol. The newlyweds will spend the coming week at New York, N. Y. They will reside in an apartment at 1027 Wood street, Bristol. Travelling costume for the bride is a brown and pink ensemble.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Bristol high school, is employed by Kaiser Metal Products, Inc., that borough. He served for 37 months with the U. S. Army Air Force during World War II, spending sometime in the European theatre of operations.

Ruben Blane Addresses Community Service Council

Ruben Blane, manager of the Social Security Administration program in this area, addressed a meeting of the Community Services Council held Thursday evening in the Travel Club Home. Jacob C. Schmidt, Jr. co-chairman of the Council, presided. Mrs. Harry T. Neher, secretary, presented the report of the committee on preparing a pamphlet listing the health, welfare, and recreational services available to Bristol and Bristol Township. It was decided to hold the next meeting of the Council early in June.

The following organizations were represented: Bristol PTA, Home Service and Bristol District American Red Cross, Bristol High School Nurse, Penna. Association for the Blind, Boy Scouts of America, Phila.-Camden Social Service Exchange, American Legion and Auxiliary, Bristol Moose and Bristol Clubmen's Association, Senior Travel Club, and Guidance Counselling, Delhaas High School.

Mr. Blane presented the new aspects of the Social Security set-up, as it applies to 10,000,000 more workers in the U. S., (so that three out of four workers are now receiving old-age and survivor benefits through Social Security), as the law liberalizes the qualifications for securing these benefits, as more groups of relatives now receive payments under retirement plans and monthly payments, and as the benefit rate has been increased to meet the increased cost of living.

For the first time, self-employed persons earning $400 yearly net, after expenses of operation are deducted, are compelled to file with the Social Security; houseworkers who work in any one quarter of the year (Jan. Feb. and March) receiving $50 cash on twenty-four different days must have a social security number; those engaged in non-profit employment receive these benefits on a more or less voluntary basis if the employer wishes to enter the plan and the employees vote to cooperate; state and local government employees (not including teachers who are under a government retirement plan), federal employees not under other federal retirement plans, and farm workers regularly employed (not migrants) all qualify under the new law for these benefits.

Mr. Blane emphasized that many more people are entitled to these benefits than apply for them. This office in Trenton is anxious to interview any who consider themselves eligible for social security benefits.

At a business meeting, preceding finance discussion, Miss Edna Pen-nypacker was elected treasurer.

BRISTOL HIGH SHUT OUT BY THE HURLING OF MORRIS

NEWTOWN, Apr. 28 — Bristol High was shut out by "Russ" Morris and Council Rock, 3-0, yesterday in a Lower Bucks League fracas on the Richboro field.

Morris whiffed eleven batters and walked one in handing the Warriors their seven goose-eggs. Bristol's lone scoring opportunity came in the second when it had a walk and two singles but failed to produce a run. Morris permitted five hits.

Bob Ashby, the Warriors' moundman, also gave up five hits but errors and wildness caused his downfall. He struck out eight and walked three.

It was Bristol's second circuit loss and third straight setback of the season.

BRISTOL JR. HIGH NINE BLANKS GEORGE SCHOOL

Bristol Junior High, with "Bobby" Rago on the hill, blanked the George School Junior High nine, 3-0, yesterday on Memorial Park diamond. It was the first win for Bristol, it having played a tie with George School last week.

Rago allowed the visitors five scattered hits. He was especially tight in the pinches, getting out of several scrapes by whiffing batters. He had nine strikeouts and did not pass a batter.

Harold Loud and Larry Cohen smacked out extra base hits for Bristol, Loud having a double and Cohen, a triple.

BRAY ENTERS HALL OF FAME AT PENNSBURY

FALLSINGTON, Apr. 28 — "Bill" Bray, a junior at Pennsbury High, entered the mythical hall of fame yesterday as he twirled the Falcons to a no-run no-hit game over Morrisville High in a Lower Bucks League tilt. Final score was 4-0.

Only four Morrisville batters reached first base, one on an error, and three on walks. Not one was able to reach second. Bray fanned thirteen batters.

A brother of Bill, Ray Bray, decided the game in the third canto when he whalloped a triple with the sacks loaded. Mayo, Briggs, and Hunter were on base at the time. Hunter had previously scored Dave Bray who walked, stole second, and advanced on a fielder's choice. The only other extra base hit was made by Dave Bray who tripped in the fifth.

Coach "Cy" Bachman, of Pennsbury, used a freshmen, Baxlow, behind the plate for the entire fracas. He handled Bray well throughout the contest.

"Jim" Ryan started on the hill for Morrisville and left after Ray Bray's three-bagger. He was relieved by Frank Cowell who finished in fine style.

BENSALEM WINS THIRD STRAIGHT GAME IN A ROW

CORNWELLS HEIGHTS, Apr. 28 — Bensalem Township won its third straight Lower Bucks County League game yesterday as it beat Neshaunmy High, 7-6, on Hansell's field. The Owls are unbeaten in league competition.

The arm and bat of Bob Whitfield spelled the victory for the boys of Coach Marion Vanhorn who were forced to fight an uphill battle to match the triumph as going into the fifth the Redskins were sporting a comfortable 6-0 lead.

The way Dick Mercer was setting down the Bensalem boys, it appeared as if Neshaunmy had the game in the bag. But suddenly things began to happen after Harry Crowthers singled and after Dwyer got on, Whitfield lined out a double and shortly after Bowman got on and Harry Robinson and Al Bader followed with base hits. Before the frame was over, the Owls had counted five runs and were one run behind.

In the following frame, Walt Smith singled and by means of two errors went around to third base. With the sacrifice on, the Neshaunmy infield rushed in only to have Jim Dwyer pop the ball over the pitcher's head for an infield single to score Smith with the tying run. After Dwyer went to second, Whitfield singled him home with the winning run.

Whitfield was the winning pitcher. He relieved "Lefty" Jenks in the third inning with two out and allowed three hits the remainder of the tilt. With the stick, Whitfield made two hits in his last ten appearances at the plate.
